

SEXUAL ASSAULT IS A CRIME

The Navy Sexual Assault Victim Intervention Program (SAVI) offers victim support services and education.

For more information on the SAVI Program:

- ▲ Contact your Command SAVI Point of Contact (POC)
-

Reporting avenues for sexual assault effective 14 June 2005 DoD-wide

- ▲ Unrestricted report: Allegations can be reported to your chain of command, NCIS, health care personnel, or Sexual Assault Response Coordinator (SARC) and will be investigated. Access to military care, advocacy, intervention, information, and support will be provided for victims.
 - ▲ Restricted report: Disclosures to designated personnel (SARC, Victim Advocate, and healthcare personnel) will not be disclosed to command or law enforcement with specified exceptions. Access to medical care (forensic examination), advocacy, intervention, information and support will be provided.
 - ▲ Contact an installation Sexual Assault Response Coordinator (SARC) at your local Fleet & Family Support Center (FFSC).
-

- ▲ Contact your Victim Advocate
-

SEXUAL ASSAULT VICTIM INTERVENTION

PUTTING THE PIECES TOGETHER

For SAVI information and resources,
visit www.ffsp.navy.mil,
or call your local FFSC.